

ADVENTURES OF SONIC THE HEDGEHOG SEASON 2

EPISODE 211: Around Mobius in 80 Hours

PRODUCTION CODE DAOS 03 (DiC Adventures of Sonic)

An original story not adapted from anything except a little bit from Around the world in 80 days.

The famous Robotnik's fortress opening comes up which as usual is playing the Robotnik theme. The title card says:

AROUND MOBIUS IN 80 HOURS

written by Jerry Gustafson

The fortress zooms up into view, on which Scratch and Grounder are in the TV room playing on Get The Hedgehog! The game has a blocky Dr Robotnik chasing Sonic around a level, basically if a person has played on a Mario game.

INT: SSSSS Squad Room

Wide of Scratch and Grounder sitting on the couch. Scratch is holding a controller which a stared face.

Scratch: Come on Robotnik, get the hedgehog!

Grounder: Hey Scratch, why can't you run faster?

Scratch: The game can't run faster, ding-bot.

Grounder: Oh yeah!

Scratch and Grounder fight each other while a sample of Sonic's voice going Way Past Cool is heard.

Robotnik (v.o): SCRATCH! GROUNDER! GET HERE AT ONCE!

Scratch: We better check.

Robotnik is dusting a few old trophies which say "Best Dictator 1992" and "Most reoccurring villain", he drops his duster and is furious.

Robotnik: Why can't I get that hedgehog? He always saves Mobius every 10 seconds.

Scratch and Grounder come in through the doorway. Robotnik calms down.

Robotnik: I have just got an idea to defeat Sonic. Freeze him.

Scratch: Tried it, failed.

Robotnik: Kidnap Tails.

Grounder looks dumb.

Grounder: I'm getting fed up of that, Dr Robotnik.

Robotnik pulls a piece of paper from his notice board which is the same one from DAOS 02 (7 Continents for One Robotnik).

Robotnik: Wait just one minute, I have a plan.

Scratch: Go on.

Robotnik: I will take over Mobius by kidnapping the leaders. You two will stay here and guard my fridge.

Grounder: But Dr Robotnik...

Robotnik: No buts, do it!

Scratch & Grounder: Yes, sir.

Robotnik: Good.

The screen changes to some grassy field of Sonic and Tails running about and Sonic suddenly brakes causing him to slow down. Tails follows. The viewer can see Da Bears sitting on a wall.

Close up of Big Mike and Big Griz

Big Mike: I'm getting bored of nothing to do, Big Griz.

Big Griz: I agree, Mike.

Big Mike: Even one lousey Robotnik trap would do us fine.

Big Griz: Yawn.

Sonic and Tails arrive next to Da Bears.

Sonic: What's up Big Mike?

Big Mike: Me and Big Griz have nothing to do.

Sonic: Why couldn't you save a village or something?

Big Griz: We tried but every village and town is safe.

Close up of Tails with his chin on his finger.

Tails: Hang on Sonic, I've got an idea.

Wide to Sonic and Tails

Tails: How about a world tour of Mobius?

Sonic: Great idea keed, maybe that might cure Da Bears boredom.

Wide to Sonic, Tails and Da Bears

Mad Mike: I think it's a great idea, Tails.

Big Griz: That would keep me going.

Mad Mike & Big Griz: Because we are, DA BEARS!

Sonic: I guess we have to motor.

Sonic, Tails and Da Bears run off screen and then they run around the same grassy field when they bumped into MacHopper.

MacHopper: Watch where you're going... Hey Sonic.

Sonic: Why if it isn't MacHopper. I haven't seen you for a while.

MacHopper: Well I was in a boomerang contest not so long back. Where are you going?

Tails: A trip around Mobius.

MacHopper: Can I tag along?

Sonic: Sure.

Mad Mike: I guess the more the merrier.

Sonic, Tails, Da Bears and MacHopper are running about heading towards Ice Cap Zone but before they get to the icy place.

Sonic: Sure could do with a chili dog.

Big Griz: Here you go Sonic, I've saved this when we last meet.

Sonic: I remember now.

Close up of Sonic scoffing the chili dog up and makes a burp.

Off screen person: Help me.

Sonic: Oh no! Someone's in danger. Gotta juice.

Sonic runs towards a pit on which Professor Von Schlemmer is down there.

Sonic: I get you out of there, Von Schlemmer.

Von Schlemmer: Professor Von Schlemmer's here?

Sonic: You're Professor Von Schlemmer!

Von Schlemmer: I guess I am.

The theme music is playing while Sonic reaches to the professor and grabs him. Sonic is running towards Tails & co. He then brakes down to a halt.

Von Schlemmer: Thanks for saving me.

Tails: You can join our trip around Mobius if you want, Professor Von Schlemmer.

Von Schlemmer: Trip? What trip?

Sonic: The one that are on.

Von Schlemmer: Oh yes, I follow you lot around. Sure is cold around here.

Close up of Tails, point to a sign that says ICE CAP ZONE. Then wide to Sonic & Tails

Tails: Sonic! We are at Ice Cap Zone.

Sonic: No wonder I'm a bit chilly.

Von Schlemmer: Good thing I'm packed a sweater for you, Sonic. Let's see.

Von Schlemmer goes through his lab coat taking the following; a coffee jug, a newspaper, some chewing gum, a yak.

Sonic: A yak?

Then VS continues searching & picks out a warm green sweater.

Von Schlemmer: I use this at summer to look like I've got a tan.

Sonic: Gee, thanks.

Close up of Da Bears, Sonic, Tails, and a bit of MacHopper

Mad Mike: Hey Sonic, let's go snowboarding.

Big Griz: I agree, Mad Mike.

Sonic: Great idea Mike. Let's get a few boards.

The screen goes swirly on which Sonic, Tails, Da Bears and MacHopper are at the top. Von Schlemmer is at the bottom with a checked flag. VS waves at Sonic on which Sonic waves back.

Tails which is wearing a ski suit and also counting down.

Tails: 3, 2, 1, Go!

The Ice Cap Zone music plays, Sonic is at 1st with a pose that looks like the box art of Sonic Triple Trouble. MacHopper is at 2nd which he looks confident. Mad Mike is 3rd and controlling the board just right. Big Griz is last on which he is struggling on the board and trips over a rock. After Big Griz got hit by the rock, he turns into a snowball which is rolling down the hill. The snowball hits Mad Mike on which they both roll together. MacHopper is catching towards Sonic but he blinks on which Sonic gets faster. However there was a jump that MacHopper and Sonic failed to notice and then got hit by a icy wall.

VS sees Sonic and MacHopper over the jump before the crash.

Von Schlemmer: I guess that's a tie.

Tails looks down the pit with his hands on his mouth to increase volume.

Tails: Sonic! Are you all right?

The viewer then sees Sonic inside the pit with MacHopper and a white rabbit.

Sonic: I'm alright bro, it's the landing that got me.

Sonic pats himself down to remove some dust.

The White Rabbit: Hey Sonic!

Sonic turns towards the white rabbit.

Sonic: What is it Up-Dike?

Up-Dike: I heard from some of my pals that Robotnik is planning an attack and take over Ice Cap Zone!

Sonic: Whoa there! Is this a bad joke?

Up-Dike: I'm serious Sonic.

MacHopper: That Big Bad Buttnik doesn't know when to stop!

Sonic: I was about to say that, MacHopper.

Suddenly Sonic, MacHopper and Up-Dike got out of the pit.

Meanwhile at the other side, Dr. Robotnik is holding a telescope with his cousin Dr. Warpnik jumping up and down next to the mad dictator.

Robotnik "Why have you joined me, Warpnik?"

Warpnik "My little fishy wishies have run away from me."

Robotnik "You're weird, strange and iffy. You are better off in a theme park."

Warpnik "I want to catch Sonic too."

Robotnik: Can you be still for 5 seconds, I've almost found him?

Warpnik: Hick, Okay lardo.

Robotnik spots Sonic and pals on his telescope.

Robotnik: There's that hedgehog and his pals.

Warpnik: Can I press the button?

Robotnik: No, you don't Warpnik. I'm the leader around here.

Warpnik: If I had my fishie, I would whack you.

Robotnik: Fine, but DO NOT BREAK IT!

Dr. Warpnik presses a button on a ray and lasers are shooting off, the lasers are melting the ice on Ice Cap Zone.

Up-Dike: Look Sonic, the ice is melting! (has he points to the ice)

Sonic: Tails! MacHopper! Bring me a fridge!

Tails: Why Sonic?

Sonic: So I can throw it towards the lasers.

Tails and MacHopper both bring a fridge and put it next to Sonic but MacHopper drops it on Sonic's feet.

Sonic: Ouch.

MacHopper: Sorry Sonic, mate.

Sonic: That's okay, MacHopper.

Big Mike: Can me and Big Griz lift that fridge instead?

Sonic: Sure, anyway you're stronger than me.

Big Griz: Thanks Sonic.

Big Mike and Big Griz throw the fridge directly to the lasers which stops the lasers. Apparently the fridge is made of insulating material that holds the energy from the lasers.

Sonic: My advice, run!

Sonic & co run very quickly which Robotnik and Warpnik can't see due to the fridge blocking their view. Suddenly the fridge explodes causing pieces of metal flying about.

Robotnik: Grr. It's all your fault, Warpnik.

Warpnik: My fault? You invented that ray.

Robotnik: Ah, but you pressed it.

Warpnik: I try my idea that stop Sonic.

Robotnik: Don't make it fail!

Sonic & co are still running from the explosion.

Up-Dike: Where are you taking us, Sonic?

Sonic: To Eurobius, there have the most delicious chilidogs on the planet!

Tails: I thought Weiner-Ville was the best?

Big Griz: Err. In Eurobius, there are 44 flavors of chilidogs, 12 types of honey and ...

MacHopper: 137 mint varieties.

While Sonic & co are speeding towards Eurobius, back in Robotnik's Fortress, Scratch & Grounder are getting bored of guarding their master's fridge.

Scratch: I'm getting fed up of guarding that fridge!

Grounder: What should WE do?

Scratch: Since Dr. Robotnik isn't here, we can take over this fortress.

Grounder: Yeah!

Scratch & Grounder sees Robotnik's throne and race towards it. They both fight over it.

Grounder: It's mine!

Scratch: Nope, it's mine!

Grounder: I was here first.

Scratch: Ha Ha, I'm older than you.

Scratch pushes Grounder to the floor while he sits comfily on the chair.

Sonic and co arrive in Eurobius which is playing the slow music used in villages. MacHopper sees a chilidog stand and Sonic's lips are licking.

Sonic: Can you smell that MacHopper?

MacHopper: Smell what, Sonic mate.

Sonic: That delicious chilidog over there.

Big Griz: What should we do about Up-Dike?

Sonic: Look after him at no costs.

Mad Mike: Anything you say, Sonic.

Sonic goes to the chilidog stand with some Mobiums on his hand, MacHopper, Professor Von Schlemmer and Tails are behind him.

Chilidog vendor: What would like customer?

Tails: What chilidogs do you have?

The Chilidog vendor waves his arms with satisfaction and pulls out a menu.

Chilidog vendor: I have classic flavour, pork chop flavour, bacon chilidog, Kentucky chilidog, Mega Drive chilidog, Gloop chilidog, cherry chilidog, duck chilidog, laxative chilidog and the world famous cheesy chilidog.

Sonic looks at Tails, MacHopper and Von Schlemmer and whisper their choices with each other.

Sonic: We have 5 classics for me, 2 Mega Drive chilidogs for Tails, 3 Kentuckys for my friend MacHopper and 1 Gloop dog for Professor Von Schlemmer.

Chilidog vendor: By the way, are you Sonic The Hedgehog?

Sonic: Err. yes, I am.

Chilidog vendor: Put them Mobiums away, Sonic pal. It's on the house.

Tails: Thanks.

While Sonic receive the chilidogs, Up-Dike rabbit disappears when Da bears were looking at a honey pot.

Big Griz: Oops. Where is Up-Dike?

Mad Mike: It's my fault, we should have been more careful.

Meanwhile back at the chilidog stand, Sonic is about to munch his classic chilidog when a mouse who looked exactly like Mouser from Super Mario Bros. 2 comes to Sonic.

Mouse: Sonic, we have some news.

Sonic: What is it? Can't you see I was about to eat my chilidog?

Mouse: Sorry, your Sonicness.

Tails: Are you Mouser Cheese, leader of Eurobius?

Mouser: You're so smart little fox, I am Mouser.

Professor Von Schlemmer: He is Mouser? Who am I?

Mouser: You're Professor Dinglehopper!

Tails: Don't you mean Von Schlemmer?

Professor Von Schlemmer: Tails is right, I think. (while scratching his head)

Mad Mike and Big Griz rush towards Sonic and co.

Mad Mike: We also have some bad news.

Big Griz: Up-Dike is gone!

Sonic started to get angry.

Sonic: I am absolutely fed up of Dr. Robotnik!

Tails: Why do you think it's him?

Sonic: It's always that Egg-Belly Slo-Mo turned over easy.

Mouser looking worried turned to Sonic.

Mouser: That's isn't the only problem, Dr. Robotnik has destroyed my palace. Now it's nothing more than a mouse hole.

A large machine comes towards Sonic and co stomping on innocent Mobians.

Large machine: Hahahahahah!

MacHopper: Who dares laugh at MacHopper?

The large machine opens the front glass, inside is Dr. Robotnik and his crazy cousin Dr. Warpnik.

Dr. Robotnik: Looking for Up-Dike?

Big Griz: Yes.

Dr. Robotnik: Too bad, he is in my underground fortress.

Mouser looks around Eurobius, nearly half of the buildings are destroyed.

Mouser: You destroyed nearly half of the continent! You're gonna pay for this!

Mouser finds a bomb in his pocket, lights the top and throws to the large machine. However the bomb comes back to Mouser and blows up. Luckily the bomb was a duff.

Dr. Warpnik: See Sonic, you're not the only person who works together.

Dr. Robotnik: I have a little surprise for you Sonic, I will throw you and your pals to Dessert Oasis.

The Large Machine reached his oversized arms, tightened it's fist and chucked Sonic & co towards Dessert Oasis.

Dr. Robotnik: So Long Sonic, bring me a postcard when you come back.

Sonic and co land in Dessert Oasis, more precisely near the jungle part. They land directly into a tar pit.

MacHopper: Sure is sticky and I can't hop out.

Big Griz: Is it me or are we stuck here?

Tails points towards some snakes that are slithering near the tar pit.

Tails: SONIC!

Sonic sees the snakes coming towards them.

Sonic: If we don't get out of here, we gonna be poisoned!

Then some dramatic cliffhanger type music plays.

Act 2

There is a recap of the previous scene with the snakes coming towards Sonic and co.

Sonic: Let me try buzz sawing this goop.

Sonic tries to buzz saw but it made things worse for him since he is starting to sink.

Sonic: Professor Von Schlemmer!

Von Schlemmer: What do you want Sonic?

Sonic: Do you happen to have a pulley or something?

Von Schlemmer: Hmm.

Von Schlemmer fishes through his lab coat and found something that looked like a TV remote but with only one button.

Von Schlemmer: It is my Gunky-Gloopy remover, it is really complicated. All you do is press that red button to be free.

Sonic takes the device and presses the button very quickly. Sonic and co are jumped 100 feet into the sky and landed on the desert part of Dessert Oasis.

Sonic: Thanks.

Mouser: What should we do your speedyness?

Sonic: Well.. We need a way to defeat Botnik's machine.

Mad Mike: This is just great. Dr. Robotnik has ruined our trip.

A 3 humped camel comes towards Sonic and co.

Camel: Why if it isn't Mouser Cheese?

Mouser: Humpfrey, is that you?

Camel: Em. Em. Yes.

Sonic: Can the chit-chat, we need to get to where Robotnik and his weird cousin are.

Camel: Er. Er. I saw some large machine heading towards Mobisan.

Sonic and co looked at the other way, then suddenly like Up-Dike, Humpfrey also disappeared. However there was a note on the ground.

MacHopper: What's this, a note from Dr. Botnik.

Sonic: Let me read it. Dear Sonic and pals, I have kidnapped Humpfrey and like Up-Dike, he is in my underground fortress located in South Quarters. I will kidnap Sushi Oatmeal, Koala Mint and Bert Who if you don't get to Mobisan, Down Under Mobius and Mobius Corners within 10 hours. From Dr. Robotnik.

Tails: We got to hurry Sonic, the only leader we have is Mouser.

Sonic: Okay Vern, it's time to burn!

Sonic and co speed towards Mobisan that looked like Tokyo, Japan. They arrive in the city to discover that they are early. On one of the screens, it has an advertisement in Japanese about Sergeant Moon, coming soon from DuCK Animation City.

There was some yellow cat coming towards Sonic.

Sushi Oatmeal: We have a problem Sonic, Dr. Robotnik is coming here.. 1 minute from now.

Too bad the girls from the upcoming show Sergeant Moon are busy.

Sonic: This sounds like a piece of chilidog.

Suddenly above schedule, Dr. Robotnik and Dr. Warpnik crash through Mobisan like a steaming bull.

Dr. Robotnik: I have you now...

Dr. Robotnik's Large Machine quickly grabbed Sushi Oatmeal.

Dr. Robotnik: Where is Dr. Warpnik?

Dr. Warpnik was looking at some fish in a local fishery.

Dr. Robotnik: Screw Robotnik, I found my fishie wishies.

Back to the scene, Sonic tried to buzzsaw through the large machine but it reflected back towards the ground.

Tails: SONIC!

Sonic is just knocked out with Sonic's eating chilidogs above him.

Sonic: Let me destroy the large machine next Tuesday.

Dr. Robotnik speedily moved towards Down Under Mobius and Sonic, Tails, Da bears, MacHopper, Von Schlemmer and Mouser were following the machine.

Sonic and co arrived at Down Under Mobius looking for Koala Mint.

MacHopper: This is odd, Sonic.

Mad Mike: What is it MacHopper?

Big Griz: Yeah, we should know too.

MacHopper: I am back home, I lived here before becoming a Freedom Fighter.

Sonic clapped his hands.

Sonic: Since you're back home, do you want to stay here?

MacHopper is red in the face and thirsty.

MacHopper: Might as well.

MacHopper collapsed towards the ground.

Tails got his little radio out.

Radio newscaster: We have some latest news. Koala Mint has been kidnapped and Kingsland is nearly completely destroyed. Where were Sonic and Tails?

Tails: I think we're too late.

Sonic: Nonsense keed, there still Bert Who to go.

Mouser: If you don't hurry up, zee Bert would be gone!

Sonic: Why do they call me the fastest thing alive, cos I'm fast that's why.

Sonic and co rushed towards Mobius Quarters but luckily they got there before Robotnik did. Sonic dashed straight towards Bert's Diner.

Bert: Hello there Sonic, want some free chilidogs?

Sonic: Maybe later Bert, me and my buds have no time!

Mad Mike: Robotnik's large machine has been terrorising cities and...

Big Griz: Kidnapping the world leaders.

Bert: Relax friends, I know one way of defeating that deadly Dr. Robotnik. Roxy, come here.

Roxy comes out of the kitchen door and looking at Sonic and the gang.

Roxy: Sonic, I know how to defeat that machine. Professor, do you how to make a Burrobot?

Professor: I do but that's gonna take me 15 months.

Tails: Why can't we work together?

Mouser: Great idea, fox.

Sonic takes some parts from the disused Roller. Tails, Professor Von Schlemmer and Bert were making the machine. Big Mike and Big Griz got some parts nearby. The machine is just finished when Bert heard a noise.

Bert: I hear Robotnik coming.

Sonic: Let's get going, I hope this plan of Roxy's work.

Sonic stepped out of Bert's Diner while everyone else was inside. Sonic came in and out with the Burrobot.

Sonic: Yo, Robuttnik. I'm waiting! (While his sneakers tapping)

Robotnik's Large Machine came out towards Sonic ready to catch that hedgehog.

Dr. Robotnik: It's too late my demirable nemesis, Dr. Warpnik's plan worked perfectly. Too bad he decided to travel with them stupid fish!

Sonic: Where are Scratch the useless and Grounder the stupid?

Robotnik: On fridge duty.

Sonic: Wow, you must be really desperate to catch little old me.

While Sonic and Robotnik are chatting, inside Bert's Diner Tails pressed the on switch on the Burrobot remote control. The Burrobot goes towards into the rear of Robotnik's large machine and starts to drill inside.

Sonic: Look behind you.

Dr. Robotnik looks behind to where the Burrobot was but thanks to Tails' sharp timing, the Burrobot follows the large machine and continues to drill. Robotnik turns back to his original position and so does the Burrobot. The Burrobot drills again and this time, sparks are coming out of Robotnik's machine. Suddenly an explosion came out.

Robotnik: Nooooo! Must go to South Quarters... before it's too late.

Robotnik runs to South Quarters. Meanwhile in Bert's Diner, Sonic is eating some chilidogs sitting down on a table.

Sonic: These chilidogs are really tasty Bert.

Bert: It's a traditional recipe.

Mouser comes to Sonic's table.

Mouser: Sonic, we better go to South Quarters. Bongo-Bongo Ape is the last curprit.

Sonic: We gotta speed, keeds.

Sonic and co rush to South Quarters near a volcano. Robotnik is there trying to kidnap Bongo-Bongo Ape which Sonic and his pals are near to them but far enough so Dr. Robotnik doesn't spot them.

Tails: Does anyone speak ape? I have an idea.

Sonic: Should we leave this to the professional which is me?

Tails: You get too much glory Sonic!

Mouser puts his hand up.

Mouser: Try asking Professor Dingle... Von Schlemmer.

Professor Von Schlemmer goes next to Sonic and Tails who were standing near Robotnik and Bongo-Bongo.

Von Schlemmer: I think I know ape. Once when I was in school, there was this doctor who can talk to the animals. Bob Murphy, I think. He taught me that you must Strudel-hargen your voice and squash-table your mouth.

Professor Von Schlemmer goes straight to Bongo-Bongo Ape while Robotnik was inspecting his base that said Robotnik's Underground Fortress, Below!

Professor Von Schlemmer: Ooo ooo aahhh oogo grrr. Robotnik... ooo arr. volcano.

Bongo-Bongo Ape nodded as Von Schlemmer runs back to Sonic.

Sonic: What did you say?

Professor: Hmm. I'm good friend, chuck Robotnik into the volcano.

Bongo-Bongo Ape picks up Dr. Robotnik.

Robotnik: What are you doing simian sourpuss? I Robotnik command you to let me go!

Bongo-Bongo Ape throws Robotnik to the volcano and due to the heat, Dr. Robotnik goes up into the air.

Robotnik: I hate that hedgehog!

Soon the lardy dictator lands back onto his fortress and crash lands to his throne room.

Robotnik: What on Mobius are you doing on MY throne, Scratch?

Scratch: That's King Scratch to you.

Scratch hits Robotnik's head by his cane.

Robotnik: Grrr... That's it, I'm reprogramming you two tomorrow morning.

Grounder: Tell me about it.

Everyone except Sonic and Tails are cheering. Sonic zipped off and came back with the world leaders.

Mad Mike: That was a great trip.

Big Griz: I agree, Big Mike.

Koala Mint: I dub you Sonic, no. 1 Hero on Mobius.

Sonic: At least I'm rewarded, but I need to thank Tails and the rest of the group too.

Tails: We both did great Sonic.

Sonic: Sure we did, now we need more chilidogs pronto.

Sonic races off screen.

END of Episode.
